

Tim's Pig

Tim rested in the grass by the pen where he kept his pigs.

A man crept up to the pen and got in.

Tim jumped up and ran at him.

The man put one of the pigs in a bag and was back on the grass with one big jump. Then he ran off, and he was fast!

Again Tim ran at him. He swung a stick to snag the bag.

The man ran off with not a thing in his hands, and Tim had his pig back.
