

LESSON 32

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

ank (as in “bank”)

ink (as in “sink”)

onk (as in “honk”)

unk (as in “sunk”)

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that “nk” makes two sounds squished together: the “ng” sound followed by the “k” sound. The “nk” blend is found at the end of words.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that end with ‘nk.’”

Examples: drink, pink, link, think, rink, bank, bunk, stunk, gunk

Say, “Let’s say the following words and count the number of sounds they make.”

flake (4 sounds: f_l_a_k)

shrink (5 sounds: sh_r_i_ng_k)

blank (5 sounds: b_l_a_ng_k)

clasp (5 sounds: c_l_a_s_p)

Words to read and write:

bank dank tank shank sink link rink wink pink bonk honk zonk wonk bunk funk gunk hunk junk chunk

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

all, call, small¹

Have the student read:

There is so much junk in that small pink tank.

We all think that dunk tanks are fun.

That punk did rob my pal Hank of all of his Kit Kats.

“I am out of luck. My ship has sunk,” the man said.

Jack said, “Can you call a cab for my pal?”

Have the student write from your dictation:

My sis and I fell off the log and sank in the bog.

¹ all, call, small: c is decodable; all will be decodable Lesson 47; sm will be practiced as a blend in Lesson

We call and call, “Yank us out now!”

Hank did wink at me when I sang my song.

I will get that small bit of gunk off your pot.

I took all your Kit Kats, and now you are so mad at me.

Have the student do a “triple read” of “Nan Has to Go to the Bank” and some of the sentences above.

Nan Has to Get to the Bank

“I have to go to the bank,” said Nan, Hank’s sis.

“Why?” said Hank.

“I have a big check to cash from my job at the hot dog shop,” said Nan.

“Is your bank the one by Ben’s Pet and Fish?” said Hank.

“I think so,” said Nan.

“I want a net and a small tank for Ned, my pet fish,” said Hank.

“Is Ben’s Pet and Fish by that shop that sells the good chips in the pink bags?” said Nan.

“Yes, and they sell pop and Kit Kats too,” said Hank.

“Yum. You can have some of my chips, if I can have a small chunk of your Kit Kat,” said Nan.

“Let’s go,” said Hank.
