

LESSON 7

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the whiteboards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letter of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

C/c (as in “cat”)

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “The letter c makes the ‘k’ sound. The letter k makes that sound too. Let’s brainstorm a list of words that have a ‘k’ sound at the beginning.”

Examples: crab, kangaroo, crackers, cranberry, kick, clean, careful, cry, cradle, camp, kiss, cake, cookies, crumbs, cramp, cap, kitten

Say, “Now, let’s brainstorm words that have a ‘k’ sound at the end.”

Examples: backpack, break, kick, hike, stack, peak, creek, lick, cake

Say, “Now listen to the word ‘bite.’ Take off the ‘t’ sound, and what do you have?” (bi) “Now, add a ‘k’ sound to the end and what do you get?” (bike)

Say, “Listen to the word ‘mitten.’ Take off the ‘m’ sound and tell me what we have.” (itten) “Now add the ‘b’ sound and what do we have?” (bitten)

Say, "Listen to the word 'croak.' Now take the 'cr' sounds away. What do we have?" (oak) "Wow, great job with that! You took two sounds away, no problem."

Say, "Listen to the word 'coke.' Now take away the last 'k' sound and what do we have? (co). Now add a 'd' sound to the end and what do we have?" (code)

Words to read and write:

bic mac cab cam tic tac

Introduce the new high-frequency word you have written onto a flashcard. Have the student write the high-frequency word three times while pronouncing the word:

a (pronounced "uh")¹

Have the student read:

Mac said, "My cat is in a cab."

Pip said, "The cap is for Tim, and the good map is for him."

Pam said my map is a hit.

The student can write from your dictation:

a cat and a cap

My cat is in a pit.

The fat cat bit the good ham.

¹a: a making the "uh" sound will be decodable in Lesson 106

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.

Mac said, "My cat is in a cab."

Pip said, "The cap is for Tim, and the good map is for him."

Pam said my map is a hit.
