

LESSON 99

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

gu (as in “guitar”)

Explain that in words with gu the u is silent. (In “language” and “distinguish” the gu makes a “gw” sound, but we are excluding these words, except as high frequency words.) In words where the gu is followed by an e or i, the g makes the hard “g” sound not the soft “j.” Explain to the student that the u is saying “undo” that soft g spelling rule.

Words to read and write:

guide guinea pig guarantee guard guilty guild guitar

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

language¹

Have the student read:

Mary wanted to be a fantastic guitarist.

¹ language: lang is decodable; uage making the “gwij” sound is irregular

Even a trained guide dog may bother a pet guinea pig. They may be trained, but they are still dogs, with dog instincts.

The guy who sold me his old laptop gave me a one-year guarantee.

When I hear people talking in another language, I love to guess what language they are speaking.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Denzel is a nice guy who is in my language class.

I feel guilty when I put off practicing my guitar.

Can you guess how old that puppy is?

Choose any of the stories in Group 9 \(Soft “c” and “g” Stories\), Group 8 \(“Y” as a Vowel Stories\), Group 7 \(Consonant-le Stories\), or Group 6 \(Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories\) for a “triple read.”
