

LESSON 116

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

ea (which makes the short “e” sound, as in “head”)

Words to read and write:

bread stealth wealthy breakfast instead thread weather leather spread meant ready steady cleanse cleanser dead death

Introduce the new high-frequency word you have written onto a flashcard. Have the student write the high-frequency word three times while pronouncing the word:

early¹

Have the student read:

Benjamin Franklin said, “Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.”

When the young man got a love text from his crush, he was as light as a feather.

Our teacher told us that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said, “Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.”

¹early: ear making the “er” sound is irregular; ly is decodable

When my father said, “I count my wealth in the things I can do without,” he meant that his brain was full of free ways to entertain himself.

Have the student write from your dictation:

I got up early and made toast and eggs for breakfast.

In stealth, the secret agent broke into the house and looked for the missing files.

On a weekend when the weather is nice, the streets of Annapolis are crowded with visitors.

The phrase, “Birds of a feather flock together,” means that friends are often alike and have similar qualities.

Do a “triple read” of “The Day of the Dead” in Group 10 \(Advanced Phonics Stories\) or choose any of the stories in Group 9 \(Soft “c” and “g” Stories\), Group 8 \(“Y” as a Vowel Stories\), Group 7 \(Consonant-le Stories\), or Group 6 \(Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories\) for a “triple read.”
