

LESSON 58

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the whiteboards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

ph (as in “phone”)

Explain that ph can be found in the beginning, middle, and end of words.

Words to read and write:

phone dolphin Phil photograph graphite Phillip elephant prophet phrase phase sophisticated triumph

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

tomorrow, friend¹

Have the student read:

Ralph looked at the pamphlet and gave it to his friend Phil.

Phil saw the photographs of dolphins jumping and doing tricks and said, “Yes, we should go tomorrow.”

There is a wise phrase, “Do not put off until tomorrow those things you can do today.”

¹ tomorrow: t is decodable; o making the “oo” sound is irregular; m is decodable; or making the “ar” sound is irregular; r is decodable; ow will be decodable in Lesson 80
friend: fr is decodable; ie making the short “e” sound is irregular; nd is decodable

My friend Beth crossed the finish line with a triumphant smile. She knew that she was now the fastest girl in our class.

Have the student write from your dictation:

My friend Jill had a problem in math class where she had to make graphs.

Sometimes it takes only a moment to know that people will be friends.

Ralph's best friend moved away, but they are still close and chat by phone.

Choose any of the stories in Group 2 \(Silent-E Stories\) or Group 1 \(Short-Syllable Stories\) for a "triple read."
