

LESSON 95

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the whiteboards.

New material: more words with the soft c and ice as a suffix

Explain that some words have a hard c (which makes the “k” sound) followed by a soft c.

Words to read and write:

success vaccine (ine pronounced “een”) access succeed accident accent accessory accept

Explain that ice is a common ending that means “state of.” In a one-syllable word like “mice,” the vowel is long, but in the majority of multisyllable words, ice is pronounced “iss.”

Words to read and write in which the ice ending has the short “i” sound:

practice service justice office notice cowardice prejudice malice solstice lattice hospice apprentice artifice accomplice

Words to read and write in which the ice ending has the long “i” sound:

advice entice device suffice sacrifice

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

clothes, country¹

Have the student read:

The dancer knew that it was her many hours of practice that led to her success.

Vaccines are important for preventing illnesses.

¹ clothes: "clothes" is pronounced as a one-syllable word with a long "o" vowel sound; "thes" is pronounced "thz"; there are many videos on the internet about the pronunciation of "clothes" because it is well-known as a tricky word to pronounce country: ou is pronounced "uh" which is irregular; other letters are decodable

Have the student write from your dictation:

Some people say they love the city more, and other people say they love the country. I can't decide which I prefer because I love them both.

A person who is an accessory to a crime is someone who helped another person commit a crime.
