

LESSON 111

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sounds with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of these sounds on a whiteboard three times while saying the sounds. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

ie (which makes two sounds, the long “i” as in “pie” and the long “e” as in “chief”)

Words to read and write:

tries lie die flies fried denied relief belief grief niece piece cookie brownie families achieve believe grieve yield movie
--

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

courage, promise<sup>1</sup>

Have the student read:

Refusing to tell a lie requires courage in the moment.

My father said, “It is a great relief to tell the truth because you don’t have to struggle to remember what you have said.”

promise: ise making “iss” is irregular; everything else about “promise” is decodable

My niece baked a pecan pie and promised to save me a piece.

In the Greek Orthodox Church, priests can marry and have families.

In an important scene in the movie, the man put his hand over his heart and promised that he was telling the truth.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Archie had never made his own pie crust, but he had the flour, shortening, and courage to try.

Tim finds stories set in the future more interesting than stories set in the past.

My niece forgot her purse and had to drive back to the diner to retrieve it.

More sentences for practice:

In the future, do you believe that newspapers will all be online?

“To achieve your important goals for the future, it’s important to take care of all the little chores of the day,” Gran said.

Something fatal means something that caused someone to die. But sometimes people say, “That was a fatal mistake” to mean that a mistake was very bad for a project or plan (even though no one died).

Do a “triple read” of “A Fender Bender” in Group 10 \(Advanced Phonics Stories\) or choose any of the stories in Group 9 \(Soft “c” and “g” Stories\), Group 8 \(“Y” as a Vowel Stories\), Group 7 \(Consonant-le Stories\), or Group 6 \(Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories\) for a “triple read.”

Refusing to tell a lie requires courage in the moment.

My father said, "It is a great relief to tell the truth because you don't have to struggle to remember what you have said."

My niece baked a pecan pie and promised to save me a piece.

In the Greek Orthodox Church, priests can marry and have families.

In an important scene in the movie, the man put his hand over his heart and promised that he was telling the truth.

In the future, do you believe that newspapers will all be online?

“To achieve your important goals for the future, it’s important to take care of all the little chores of the day,” Gran said.

Something fatal means something that caused someone to die. But sometimes people say, “That was a fatal mistake” to mean that a mistake was very bad for a project or plan (even though no one died).
