LESSON 1

A/a (as in “apple”)
M/m (as in “mom”)
T/t (as in “top”)

- Make the sound of each letter with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letter on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Oral Brainstorming:

Remember that in this part of the lesson we refer to sounds and not to the names of letters. Here is what you might say: “The vowel sound ‘a’ like in ‘apple’ is found most often in the middle of words like ‘can’ and sometimes at the beginning of words like ‘and’ or ‘am.’ Let’s brainstorm at least five more words that have the ‘a’ sound.”

Examples: camera, cap, cat, clap, am, as, happen, flat, bat, sand, giraffe, grass, plants, ants

To make brainstorming more fun, you can make it like a guessing game. You can say, “I was thinking of something you take pictures with” and pretend to hold a camera. Or, “I was thinking of what people do at the end of a play or concert” and pretend to clap. Or, “I was thinking of the animal at the zoo with the very long neck…”

Tell the student that “mmmm” is a consonant sound that can be at the beginning, middle, or end of words. Again, remember that in sound play, you make the sound rather than name the letter. You might say, “Mom and mop both start with ‘mmmm.’ Can you think of other words that start with ‘mmmm’?”

Examples: monkey, make, more, mud, mind, mad, medium-sized, magic, magnet, muffin, McDonald’s, mug, milk

Say, “Can you think of some words that end with ‘mmmm’?” (Brainstorming end sounds will be more difficult than brainstorming beginning sounds.)

Examples: hum, thumb, lamb, him, trim, brim, tame, lame, flame, time

You can prompt a student to think of a word by giving the beginning of a thought that ends with the word, like, “Hurry! We are running out of….” Or, “Uh oh, I was hammering a nail and hit my….” Or, “My hair is so long, I need a….”

Finally, “t” is another consonant sound that can be at the beginning, middle, or end of words. (Remember to make the “t” sound rather than say the letter name, and not to say “tuh,” but make a quick “t.”) Ask the student, “Can you think of some words that begin with the ‘t’ sound?”

Examples: tickle, tackle, time, take, tiger, touch, table, trap

Then say, “Can you think of some words that end with the ‘t’ sound, like ‘hit’?” You can prompt students to guess words by playing with opposites, like, “I am thinking of a time that is NOT day but…. I am thinking of a road that is NOT hilly but is…. My favorite pants are loose, but these pants feel so….”

Examples: bat, cat, fat, fit, mitt, bite, fight, night, flat, kite, tight
Another fun way to brainstorm is by taking turns drawing pictures to suggest words with the target sound. Here again, it is the sound not the spelling that counts, and just like in the game Pictionary “bad” drawings can be more fun than good ones. It is easiest to think of words that have the target sound at the beginning, but you and your student can throw in a challenge by drawing a word that has the target sound at the middle or end rather than as the first sound. Here are a few ideas to get you started.

(Words with “a” as in “apple”
Row 1: pass, hand, camera  Row 2: pan, pants, map) (Words with “t” as in “top”

(Words with “m” as in “map”
Row 1: monkey, map, mail Row 2: mittens, broom, mug)
Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

Have the student read:

LESSON 2

New material:

F/f (as in “fox”)

- Make the sound with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letter on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Oral Brainstorming:

Say, “‘f’ is another consonant sound that can be found in the beginning, middle, and end of words. Let’s think of some words that begin with ‘f.’”

Examples: fight, fine, feel, fantastic, fix, family, phone, fender, fountain, fish, food, French fries, fans, fingers, face

Say, “Now let’s think of some words that end with ‘f.’” (Again, remember to make the sound rather than name the letter and to pronounce a quick “f,” not “fuh.”)

Examples: laugh, off, cough, sniff, huff, stuff, giraffe, tough, rough, fluff, puff, bluff, if, stiff

Or, brainstorm by taking turns drawing pictures:
(Words with “f” as in “fox” Row 1: frog, flip, French Fries Row 2: fingers, cough, fly)

Continue to Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “Now, listen to the word ‘it.’ What happens if you add the ‘f’ sound to the beginning of the word?” (fit)
Say, “Listen to the word ‘laugh.’ Now take away the ‘l’ sound at the beginning. What do you have left?” (af)

Ask the student, “Should we do one more? Should we start by adding or taking away the ‘f’ sound?”
To add:

“Listen to the word ‘able.’ Add ‘f’ and what do we get?” (fable) “Now take away the ‘f’ and what do we get?” (able)
“Now let’s add the ‘t’ sound to the beginning and what do we get?” (table)

To take away:

“Listen to the word ‘file.’ Now take away the ‘f’ sound and what do you get?” (ile)
“Now listen to the word ‘ile.’ What do you get if you put ‘m’ sound at the beginning?” (mile) “Listen to the word ‘sniff.’ Now take away the ‘sn’ at the beginning. What do you get?” (if)

Introduce the new high-frequency word you have written onto a flashcard. Have the student write the high-frequency word three times while pronouncing the word:

New material:

B/b (as in “baby”)

- Make the sound with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letter on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Oral Brainstorming:

Say, “‘b’ is another consonant sound that can be found at the beginning, middle, and end of words. Can you think of words that start with ‘b’?” (Say just a brief “b”; avoid saying “buh.” If students say “buh,” you can tell them to snip off the sound with pretend scissors.)

Examples: basketball, bakery, books, big, bug, beach, breakfast, bacon, ball, building, bed

Say, “Can you think of words that end with a ‘b’ sound?”

Examples: grab, fib, rub, rib, bib, cab, robe, tube, cube, tub

Or, brainstorm by taking turns drawing pictures:
(Words with “b” as in “baby”
Row 1: bubble, boat, bird  Row 2: bed, basketball, bike or bicycle)

Continue to Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “Now repeat the following words—can you hear a ‘b’ sound in them? Where in the word did you hear the sound?” (Say the words slowly, and ask students if they want to hear the word again before starting.)

- table  (Yes, in the middle)
- bed     (Yes, in the beginning)
- tend    (No, I can’t hear it)
- crab    (Yes, at the end)
- before  (Yes, at the beginning) bubble  (Yes, beginning and in the middle)

Remember to give positive feedback. Saying something like, “Wow, you are really using your ears to pick out these sounds!” may be good encouragement. If the student “gets it wrong” be positive and enthusiastic: “Let’s try it again.” Often students will find this work fun when they see how much success they are having.

- Have the student write the lowercase letter on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Note: We exclude words like “ginger” or “gym,” which will be introduced later, because in them the letter g makes a “j” sound rather than a “g” sound as in “go.” If a student brings up such a word, you might say, “You’re right, that word does begin with g, but let’s keep thinking in sounds, not letters, so let’s brainstorm more words with a ‘g’ sound.”

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that start with the ‘g’ sound.”

Examples: gorilla, girl, guitar, guest, garbage, garage, gaze, grapes, green, grass, good, goat, great, gone, grab, grade, guess

“Let’s brainstorm some words that end with the ‘g’ sound.”

Bob said, “Why was there a quiz? Was it a bad one?”

“What is a fez?” “A fez is a hat.”

Did they get a cat or a dog?

Two or three of us can fit in one cab.

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: The use of s to make the “z” sound, the use of s as an ending to make nouns plural, the use of s as an ending in present tense verbs, the use of an apostrophe with s to show possession

Warm Up With Sound Play:

In the lessons so far, we have focused on getting the student to hear the individual sounds that letters make. In this lesson, we are going to introduce syllables. You might say, “A syllable is a word, or part of a word, that has at least one vowel sound that holds it together. An easy way to count the syllables in a word is to put your hand under your chin. When you say a word, you will feel your chin drop a little when you make the vowel sound.”

“Let’s say the following words with our hands under our chins and count how many beats, or syllables, each word has.”

danger (2)
whispering (3) deciding (3) blade (1) chimpanzee (3) wickedly (3) speeding (2) America (4)
rollercoaster (4)
Explain that \textbf{s} sometimes makes the “z” sound. Create a flashcard for the second sound of \textbf{s}.

\textit{Words to read and write:}

\begin{verbatim}
 as has is bags lens pins runs his pans hogs lags
\end{verbatim}

Explain that \textbf{s} makes nouns plural:

\begin{verbatim}
 bag bags ("z" sound) map maps ("s" sound) pan pans ("z" sound) hit hits ("s" sound) pig pigs ("z" sound) lip lips ("s" sound)
\end{verbatim}

Explain that \textbf{s} is found at the end of present-tense verbs.

\begin{verbatim} sit Meg sits hit Bob hits run Cal runs
\end{verbatim}

Explain that we use an apostrophe with \textbf{s} to indicate possession:

Ann’s cat
the man’s hat
Mac’s rig

\textit{Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:}

\begin{verbatim}
 out, about
\end{verbatim}

\textit{Have the student read:}

\textbf{There were lots of bugs in my cup.}

\textbf{Mac had one box of yams in the back of his rig.}

\textsuperscript{25} out: \textbf{ou} making the “ow” sound will be decodable in Lesson 83; \textbf{t} is already decodable about: \textbf{a} making the “uh” sound will be decodable in Lesson 57; \textbf{b} is already decodable
Two of Sal’s dogs got out and ran to the bog.

The jam is in Meg’s bags.

Jim was about to run out of gas.

Sal’s mom said, “Sal wants to come with you to the dam.”

Have the student write from your dictation:

Are there hogs in the bog?

Where are the bags you want me to pick up?

Nan hops from the log and gabs about Jim’s dogs.

The pup licks my leg. He wants to go out.

Dan’s mom did not let Dan get in the cab.

Jack pins Tom to the mat.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
There were lots of bugs in my cup.

Mac had one box of yams in the back of his rig.

Two of Sal’s dogs got out and ran to the bog.

The jam is in Meg’s bags.

Jim was about to run out of gas.
Sal’s mom said, “Sal wants to come with you to the dam.”
LESSON 26

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: the FLOSS spelling rule

Explain that the FLOSS spelling rule says that most often the letters f, l, s, and z are doubled at the end of words.

Words to read and write:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>tiff</th>
<th>miff</th>
<th>jiff</th>
<th>off</th>
<th>ruff</th>
<th>muff</th>
<th>cuff</th>
<th>puff</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td>sell</td>
<td>sill</td>
<td>bill</td>
<td>fill</td>
<td>will</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cuff</td>
<td>muff</td>
<td>ruff</td>
<td>dull</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pass</td>

<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>jazz</td>
<td>fizz</td>
<td>fuzz</td>
<td>razz</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Note: At this point, we are excluding words like “roll” or “ball,” which will be introduced later in Lesson 47 because the vowel makes a different sound. We are also excluding “bull,” “full,” and “pull” because u makes the “oo” sound as in “foot.”

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

see, seen, sees

Have the student read:

---

26 see, seen, sees: s and n are already decodable; ee making the long “e” sound will be decodable in Lesson 69
Tell Bill to get two bags to pack for us.

Jazz is a lot of fun.

If we let the three dogs come in, Tim’s hut will be a big mess.

We huff and puff as we run up the hills.

Have you seen my muff? Toss it to me.

See where they sell the pop? I will get it for us.

There is a lot of fizz in my pop.

We are ill and will not do the jazz gig.

Have the student write from your dictation:

My dog Ruff fell in the pit.

I see that Jim set up a box of dolls to sell.

Bill sees three red cups with pop.

My boss was ill but did not want to quit the job.

Will you pass me the ham and the jam?

Will the pup be in the cab with us?
Tim’s Dogs

Tim’s dogs want to be with us. When we come to Tim’s hut, Tim’s dogs wag and wag and do a jig. When Tim’s dogs see that we are about to go out, they are sad.

When we come back, Tim’s dogs run up the hill to Tim’s hut. They want to be with us.

But if the dogs have been in the mud or if they are wet, Tim does not want them to come in. He does not want his hut to be a mess. And Tim will not let one dog in and have two sad dogs be out.

The three dogs beg to come in. Tim huffs. He gets up and picks up a rag. If there is a mess, he will mop it up. He lets the three dogs in.
Tell Bill to get two bags to pack for us.

Jazz is a lot of fun.
If we let the three dogs come in, Tim’s hut will be a big mess.

We huff and puff as we run up the hills.

Have you seen my muff? Toss it to me.

See where they sell the pop? I will get it for us.

There is a lot of fizz in my pop.

We are ill and will not do the jazz gig.
LESSON 27

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

th (as in “this” or “that”)

- Make the sound with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “’th’ makes one sound and can be found in the beginning, middle, and end of words.”

“Let’s brainstorm a list of words that start with the ‘th’ sound.” (Remember that you can make this into a guessing game by prompting some responses.)

Examples: thin, thick, that, Thanksgiving, thanks, thread, thunder, thousand, thermostat, theater, threaten, thermos

“Now, let’s brainstorm a list of words that end with ‘th’ or have the sound somewhere in the middle.”

Examples: healthy, math, bath, death, breath, weather, smooth, north, south, mouth, teeth, tooth, booth

“Now, listen to these lists and find the word that does not have the ‘th’ sound.”
feather, father, west, bath (west) smooth, thinking, thought, children (children) change, thicken, math, both (change)

Words for reading and writing:

| this | that | them | with | bath | thick | thud | math | with | thin | path |

how, now

Have the student read:

Who fell off the log with that big thud?
I want a thick bit of ham.
Do you see that thin cat on the path? Let’s get her fed.
How did the ducks get out of the pen?
If the dog has a bath now, he will get this bed wet.

Have the student write from your dictation:

27 how and now: h and n are already decodable; ow will be decodable in Lesson 81
I want a bath now. Then I will go to bed.

How do we do this math?

That dog is thin. We will get him a bit of ham.

Beth will be quick in the bath.
Bill was sad. He had been out with his dog Rags for a quick run. And then he met his pal, Kath, who was out with her dog, Buck.

The kids and dogs had lots of fun. Bill and Kath ran up to the log on the hill. The dogs ran up the hill and sat by Bill and Kath who had a good gab.

But now that Bill was about to go to bed, he was a bit sad.

Bill said to Rags, “What luck you have! A dog does not have to do math. A dog does not have to sit for a quiz.”

Rags did not want Bill to be sad, but what can Rags do?
Rags has a kiss, a lick, and a wag for Bill, and Bill has a pet for Rags.
Who fell off the log with that big thud?

I want a thick bit of ham.

How did the ducks get out of the pen?

If the dog has a bath now, he will get this bed wet.
LESSON 28

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

ch (as in “chip”)

• Make the sound with your student
• Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
• Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “‘ch’ makes one sound and can be found in the beginning, middle, and end of words.”

“Let’s brainstorm words that begin with the ‘ch’ sound.”

Examples: chat, channel, change, chapter, chimney, chop, child, children, church, chilly, chili, chocolate, choke, chair, cheerleader, chicken, cherry, chum, cheetah

“Let’s brainstorm words that have the ‘ch’ sound in the middle or at the end.”

Examples: bench, ranch, branch, teacher, sandwich, catch, screech, French fries, smooch, touch, witch, peach, porch

Or, brainstorm by taking turns drawing pictures:
(Words with “ch” as in “chip”
Row 1: teacher, cheese, beach   Row 2: bench, chair, chain)

Continue to Warm Up With Sound Play:
“Now, let’s reverse some syllables.”

“Can you say ‘fish/cat,’ with the ‘cat’ first and ‘fish’ last?”
(catfish)
“Can you say ‘wich/sand,’ with the ‘sand’ first and ‘wich’ last?”
(sandwich)
“Can you say ‘ster/ham,’ with the ‘ham’ first and ‘ster’ last?”
(hamster)
“Can you say ‘dent/stu,’ with the ‘stu’ first and the ‘dent’ last?
(student)

Words to read and write:

chat chill much such chick chug chub chip

took, look

Have the student read:

Who will come with us now to cash the checks?
Look at that good dip for the chips!
Chess can be such fun.
Ben took Sal’s Kit Kats, and Sal now looks sad.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Chuck will chop the logs for us.
They will be sad to miss a chat with you.
Come now to look at the chicks as they peck.
Chad took the math quiz.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.

28took and look: t, k, and l are decodable; oo (as in “book”) will be decodable in Lesson 91
Who will come with us now to cash the checks?

Look at that good dip for the chips!

Chess can be such fun.

Ben took Sal’s Kit Kats, and Sal now looks sad.
LESSON 29

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

sh (as in “shut”)

- Make the sound with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “‘sh’ makes one sound and can be found at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of words. Let’s brainstorm a list of words that begin with the ‘sh’ sound.”

Examples: shout, shampoo, ship, shape, shower, shop, short, show, shoe, shark, shocking, shaving, shiver, shot, share

“Let’s brainstorm a list of words that have ‘sh’ in the middle or at the end:

Examples: wishing, washing, childish, paintbrush, toothbrush, sluggish, finish, publish, fresh, polish, dashed, trash, cash, dish

Or, brainstorm by taking turns drawing pictures:
Continue to Warm Up With Sound Play:

“Listen to these nonsense words. Can you repeat these syllables and unscramble them in your mind to find the names of animals?”

affe, gir (giraffe) bee, ble, bum (bumblebee) ten, kit (kitten)
ger, ti (tiger)

Words for reading and writing:
ship wish mash bash shot shag hush fish

blue, green

Have the student read:

On the log, there were three bags. One was blue, one was red, and one was green.

We ran to get to the shack on top of the hill.

We will have to rush or we will miss that ship.

We were in the shed with the chicks.

We wish we had hot dogs and chips with us.

Have the student write from your dictation:

The dip for the chips are in that blue dish.

There were chips with the fish.

Look at that green shag rug in our den.

Ed ran to the shop to get gum and pop.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.

29 blue: b and l are already decodable and will be practiced as a blend in Lesson 33; ue will be decodable in Lesson 73.

green: g and r are already decodable and will be practiced as a blend in Lesson 33; ee will be decodable in Lesson 69; n is decodable.
On the log, there were three bags. One was blue, one was red, and one was green.

We ran to get to the shack on top of the hill.

We will have to rush or we will miss that ship.

We were in the shed with the chicks.
We wish we had hot dogs and chips with us.
LESSON 30

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

wh (as in “when”)

- Make the sound with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make a flashcard for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that “wh” makes one sound and can be found at the beginning of words.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm words beginning with ‘wh.’”

Examples: wheel, whistle, white, whale, where, why, when, what, whack

(Because students are thinking in sounds not letters, they may include words like “want,” “wipe,” or “wish,” and that is fine. The sound of “wh” and “w” is the same (or almost the same) in English as we speak it in the US. In the UK, speakers may pronounce the “wh” with more of a whistling sound.)

Say, “Listen to these nonsense words. Can you repeat these syllables and unscramble them in your mind to find the names of animals?”
munk, chip (chipmunk)
gle, ea (eagle) pan, zee, chim (chimpanzee) ter, fly, but (butterfly)
in, rob (robin)

Words to read and write:

| whit | whack | whim | wham | whiz | whiff |

some, their

Students often mix up “there” and “their” so take time to discuss the different meanings and usage. One trick that some students like is that “there” is about place and contains the word “here” in its spelling, and “their” is about possession and contains the word “heir” (as in an heir to the throne) in its spelling.

Have the student read:

She is such a math whiz.

Wham! He got a big hit!

My mom can whip up a good dish for us.

Some chicks were in the shack.

30 some: s and m are decodable;  e-consonant-e making the “uh” sound is irregular their: th is decodable; eir making the “air” sound will be decodable in Lesson 119
The chicks were in their pen.

Let me not whiff when I get to bat!

Have the student write from your dictation:

It was such a shock when a big log fell on her deck.

Which dip do you want with the chips?

There is a whiff of fish in the cab.

They want some chips with their fish.
Have the student do a “triple read” of the story below:

Bill is at Bat

“Look, Bill is at bat,” Chip said. “This is bad.”

“When Bill is at bat, we will not get a hit, and we will not win. Bill whiffs.”

Mr. Quinn sees how much Chip wants to win.

“Hush,” said Mr. Quinn to Chip. “You have had some hits, and Bill has had some hits. Let us wish that Bill gets a hit.”

“Go, Bill,” said Chip. “Get a big hit!”

The bat went whack as Bill got his hit.
She is such a math whiz.

Wham! He got a big hit!

My mom can whip up a good dish for us.

Some chicks were in the shack.

The chicks were in their pen.

Let me not whiff when I get to bat!
LESSON 31

ung (as in “rung”)

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sound
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that “ng” makes one sound and is found at the end of words.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that have the ‘ng’ sound.”

Examples: ring, bring, sing, thing, nothing, dancing, long, strong

Say, “I am going to say three words. Can you repeat the words and then tell me which one does not have the ‘ng’ sound?”

pin, sting, rang (pin)

pond, long, tang (pond)
bluffing, stiffened, flinging (stiffened)

fangs, wags, wings (wags)

Words to read and write:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bang</th>

<td>song</td>
<td>bong</td>
<td>dong</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hung</td>
<td>rung</td>
<td>dung</td>
<td>lung</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

again, so

Have the student read:

Bugs were hung up in the web.

Val and Nan have so much fun with ping pong.

Can you ring the bell again, so the gang will come?

We sang two long songs at the jazz gig. It was so fun!

Have the student write from your dictation:

Chicks have wings.

The king rang a gong and bid his pals to sing.

31 again: a making the “u” sound will be decodable in Lesson 57; g and n are decodable; ai making the short “e” sound is irregular so: s is decodable; o making the long “o” sound will be decodable in Lesson 48
Pam wins at ping pong. I hang on rings.

The bell was rung again at ten.

The sun was hot, so Mac let his pals come in his shack.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
Bugs were hung up in the web.

Val and Nan have so much fun with ping pong.

Can you ring the bell again, so the gang will come?
We sang two long songs at the jazz gig. It was so fun!
LESSON 32

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

- ank (as in “bank”)
- ink (as in “sink”)
- onk (as in “honk”)
- unk (as in “sunk”)

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that “nk” makes two sounds squished together: the “ng” sound followed by the “k” sound. The “nk” blend is found at the end of words.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that end with ‘nk.’”

Examples: drink, pink, link, think, rink, bank, bunk, stunk, gunk

Say, “Let’s say the following words and count the number of sounds they make.”

flake (4 sounds: f_l_a_k)
shrink (5 sounds: sh_r_i_ng_k)

all, call, small\(^{32}\)

Have the student read:

There is so much junk in that small pink tank.

We all think that dunk tanks are fun.

That punk did rob my pal Hank of all of his Kit Kats.

“I am out of luck. My ship has sunk,” the man said.

Jack said, “Can you call a cab for my pal?”

Have the student write from your dictation:

My sis and I fell off the log and sank in the bog.

\(^{32}\) all, call, small: c is decodable; all will be decodable Lesson 47; sm will be practiced as a blend in Lesson 34
We call and call, “Yank us out now!”

Hank did wink at me when I sang my song.

I will get that small bit of gunk off your pot.

I took all your Kit Kats, and now you are so mad at me.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
There is so much junk in that small pink tank.

We all think that dunk tanks are fun.

That punk did rob my pal Hank of all of his Kit Kats.
“I am out of luck. My ship has sunk,” the man said.

Jack said, “Can you call a cab for my pal?”

gr (as in “grab”)

Warm Up With Sound Play:

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Explain that in these blends (that begin words) we can hear two consonant sounds. The sounds are so close together that they may sound and feel almost like one sound.
Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that start with the following blends.”

33 saw: s is decodable; aw will be decodable in Lesson 102
Have the student read:

He was glad to see the fun plans for our class on the blog.

I saw a green frog hop in the grass.

Gran had a good crop of plums.

Clip, clop, the nag drags the sled up the hill.

Have you seen frogs in the grass?

Have the student write from your dictation:

Frank will bring fresh crab for us.

Stan was glad to bring drinks and cups for our trip.

If you cluck at the chicks, they will come in a flash.

The pup saw the clam dip in the green dish and thinks it is for him.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
He was glad to see the fun plans for our class on the blog.

Gran had a good crop of plums.

Clip, clop, the nag drags the sled up the hill.

Have you seen frogs in the grass?
LESSON 34

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

- sc (as in “scam”)
- st (as in “sting”)
- sn (as in “snap”)
- tw (as in “twin”)

- sm (as in “smash”)
- sk (as in “skim”)

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that in these blends (that begin words) we can hear two consonant sounds. The sounds are so close together that they may sound and feel almost like one sound. Keep in mind that we are “working in sounds” so we can include words (like school) that have the sound we are brainstorming.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that start with the following blends.”

sc (and sk): school, skate, scar, skip, sky, scooter, score, scum
Words to read and write:

stung twill swell spill skill spit span scat snip spell smell stop stink swish spat stick smog spot skit snag smack twit

put, pull, full

Have the student read:

Grab the sticks and twigs on the grass and put them in the trash.

Fred did crush the bag and toss it in the trash.

If you swim in a bog with globs of mud, do not drink a drop of the scum.

Stan is full of skill and grit. He can do this job.

Have the student write from your dictation:

34 put: p and t are decodable; u making the “oo” sound (as in “foot”) is irregular pull and full: p and f are decodable; ull making the “oo” sound (as in “wool”) will be decodable in Lesson 48
We are glad to be snug in our twin beds.

Fran pulls the sled up the hill.

I scan the hills for cats.

I step and spin and do a jig. I am full of vim!

Fred swung on the swing and then did a big flip.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
Grab the sticks and twigs on the grass and put them in the trash.

Fred did crush the bag and toss it in the trash.

If you swim in a bog with globs of mud, do not drink a drop of the scum.
Stan is full of skill and grit. He can do this job.

- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that in these blends (that begin words) we can hear individual consonant sounds. The sounds are so close together that they may sound and feel almost like one sound.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that start with the following blends.”

spl: splat, splatter, splurge, splinter, splendid, splotch spr: spray, sprain, sprung, sprout, sprinkle, spry squ: squad, squirm, squish, squash, squeeze, squint scr: scratch, scrub, scrape, scroll, script, scrap, scrimp
Words to read and write:

shred shrug scram scrap splat splash thrum shrink strip strap strum squid spring sprig thrill throb split

day, say, says

Have the student read:

Splish, splash, they put my dog in the bath.

A squid can swim, and I can swim.

Mom says that in spring we will have to plan a day for a trip to see Gram.

Glen says he has a brash plan to grab Stan’s Kit Kats and scram.

Sal had a full day of sun and was hot.

If I say that I will think about your plan for the trip, will you think about my plans for the trip?

35 day and say: d and s are decodable; ay making the long “a” sound will be decodable in Lesson 67 says: s is decodable; ay making the short “e” sound is irregular

Have the student write from your dictation:

See them strap the logs on the truck for Cal.

A scrap of jam is all there is for me.

I got all the snacks and my stack of cash shrank.

It was not a good day, but we will shrug it off.

The kids did pull up the trap, and it was full of crabs.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
Splish, splash, they put my dog in the bath.

A squid can swim, and I can swim.

In spring, we plan to have the thrill of a big trip.
Glen had a brash plan to grab Stan’s Kit Kats and scram.

Sal had a full day of sun and was hot.
LESSON 36

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

- nd (as in “fund”)
- nt (as in “went”)
- nch (as in “lunch”)
- lt (as in “felt”)
- lk (as in “milk”)
- lp (as in “help”)

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that in these blends (that end words) we can hear individual consonant sounds. The sounds are so close together that they may sound and feel almost like one sound.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that end with the following blends.”

- nd: land, expand, ground, hand, second, find, found, sound
- nt: fingerprint, front, accident, distant, scent, event, sent, dent
- nch: ranch, branch, scrunch, wrench, brunch, punch, inch
- lt: melt, adult, bolt, built, tilt, insult, result, fault, halt, spilt, salt
- lk: silk, sulk, elk, bulk, hulk, skulk
Words to read and write:

pants wind bend bunch melt land flint kelp felt dent ant belt munch branch crunch tilt yelp band sent help bend bland and sulk silk bent ranch punch elk sulk

Mr., Mrs. family³⁶

Have the student read:

He hung the wet rags on the twigs of that branch.

There was a big dent on the truck.

The wind helps to bend the branch.

She had a sack full of sticks and shells.

When our dog Stan sees the family pack for a trip, he looks so glum.

When Gram comes to the pond with us, Dad brings lunch and lots of snacks for the family to munch on.

³⁶ family: famil all the preceding letters are decodable and two syllable words will be practiced in Lesson 43; y making the long “e” sound will be decodable in Lesson 88
Have the student write from your dictation:

Mr. Banks did put a bunch of sticks on his truck.

The dogs see the pond and yelp.

Kath got a mint drink with her lunch that day.
Have the student do a “triple read” of the story below:

A Family Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Brink want the family to have a fun trip. But a good plan for a family trip can be a trick to come up with. Zak will say that he does not want to go to such a spot, or Trish will say she has so much stuff to do for class.

Mrs. Brink said to Mr. Brink, “I have a plot. When we tell Zak and Trish that we want them to come with us on a trip, they tend to brush us off. Let us now tell them that it is Gram who wants a trip to Glen Pond. We will say that a trip will be the thing to get their Gram up and out.”

Mr. Brink said, “That is not a bad trick!”
The trip to Glen Pond was lots of fun. The lunch and all the snacks were a big hit.

Gram said, “I am so glad to see Trish and Zak out and about!”

“Thanks to you,” said Mrs. Brink.
He hung the wet rags on the twigs of that branch.

There was a big dent on the truck.

The wind helps to bend the branch.

She had a sack full of sticks and shells.
When our dog, Stan, sees the family pack for a trip, he looks so glum.

When Gram comes to the pond with us, Dad brings lunch and lots of snacks for the family to munch on.

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Explain that in these blends (that end words) we can hear individual consonant sounds. The sounds are so close together that they may sound and feel almost like one sound.

Say, “Let’s brainstorm some words that end with the following blends.”
-st: west, best, taste, twist, boast, toast, waste, just, must lift raft left tempt prompt

Ms., over, into

Have the student read:

They are glad to jump in and swim.

Mom had not slept well and was glum.

Gram wept at the end of the film. It was such a sad end for the good man.

On the ranch, hens and chicks peck in the dust.

Ms. Kath got up from her desk and said to the class, "Next up, we will do some math so that when we have our test all of you will do your best."

37 over: o making the long “o” sound will be decodable in Lesson 48; v is decodable; er will be decodable in Lesson 75 into: int is decodable; o making the “oo” sound is irregular

Our dog yelps when she wants to go out.

Have the student write from your dictation:

On the path, there are some bumps and logs to jump over.

Ms. Smith did help us set up camp and put up our tents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sands sent mints to all the cast in the skit.

The dogs are glad to jump into the pond and swim.

_More sentences for practice:*

Our lunch will cost a lot if we get drinks and chips.

A crust with plum jam is just a snack.

Mr. Bill has an ax and helps us split the logs.

My dad said, “If you are stuck in a bad spot, stop and think to get your best plan.”

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
They are glad to jump in and swim.

Mom had not slept well and was glum.

Gram wept at the end of the film. It was such a sad end for the good man.
On the ranch, hens and chicks peck in the dust.

Ms. Kath got up from her desk and said to the class, “Next up, we will do some math so that when we have our test all of you will do your best.”

Our dog yELPS when she wants to go out.

Our lunch will cost a lot if we get drinks and chips.

A crust with plum jam is just a snack.

Mr. Bill has an ax and helps us split the logs.

My dad said, “If you are stuck in a bad spot, stop and think to get your best plan.”
LESSON 38

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Adding ed as an ending

Explain that the ending ed is used to make a verb past tense. Sometimes ed sounds like “t” as in “kicked.” Sometimes ed sounds like “d” as in “grabbed.” And sometimes ed will have its own syllable beat and sound like “tid” or “did” as in “planted” or “landed.” Explain to students that we spell with ed when we’re putting something in the past tense, no matter how it sounds.

Words to read and write in which ed makes a “t” or “d” sound without an extra beat:

| jumped | banged | milked | wished | passed | camped | missed | asked | dressed | bossed | sulked | crossed | pumped | bumped | backed | crashed | checked | pecked | whisked | rushed | packed | slinked | gasped | stacked | crunched | limped | stamped | helped |
|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|-------|---------|--------|--------|---------|--------|--------|--------|---------|---------|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|---------|--------|---------|

Explain that when a word ends with t or d our mouths would find it too hard to add a second “t” or “d” sound (try it and see how hard it would be to say “land-d” or “rest-t”) so ed will have its own syllable beat and sound like “tid” or “did.”

Words to read and write where ed is pronounced with its own syllable beat:
Explain that in short vowel words ending with one consonant, the last consonant before the ed is doubled:

<table>

<tr>
<th>skip/skipped</th>
<th>stun/stunned</th>
<th>wet/wetted</th>
<th>plan/planned</th>

</table>

push, today

Have the student read:

Sal’s mom dished out some lunch for us and then Vic spilled his milk.

Fred and Val pushed me into the pond and splashed me.

Today I got up at ten and missed our math quiz.

My dad pulled me up, and we ran to the dock.

push: p and sh are decodable; u making the “oo” sound (as in “book”) is irregular today: t is decodable; o making the “oo” sound (as in “boom”) is irregular; d is decodable; ay making the long “a” sound will be decodable in Lesson 67

My mom dished up a quick lunch, and we left with the dogs for the pond.

Have the student write from your dictation:

I planned to get a hot dog for lunch, and I was tempted to add some chips.

The man tipped his hat as Ms. Liz went by.

We planted plum pits over there.

The mom pushed her tot on the swings. The tot kicked her legs and was glad.

The king looked out over his vast lands.

Val texted Frank to see if he wanted to come over for brunch.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
jumped banged milked wished passed backed crashed checked pecked whisked rushed packed slinked gasped

LESSON 39

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Adding ing as an ending

Warm Up With Sound Play:

“Let’s warm up by counting the number of syllables in some longer words. I’ll say the word, and then you say the word and count the syllable beats.” (Remind students that they can put their hands under their chins when counting for help.)

Have the student read:

We went sledding and just missed crashing into a big log.

They will be doing crafts and skipping the swim test today.

My dog Ned thinks splashing in a pond is so fun.

The snack looked good, but Sam was still too full from his lunch to want it.

Have the student write from your dictation:

I was sitting in the sun for too long and got hot.

She passed the swimming dock and jogged to the hot dog stand.

Stepping over the cat, I tripped on the rug and bumped into the bed.

The cat was so mad it was spitting.

39 doing: d is decodable; o making the “oo” sound (as in “zoo”) is irregular; ing is decodable too: t is decodable; oo making the “oo” sound (as in “zoo”) will be decodable in Lesson 88

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
We went sledding and just missed crashing into a big log.

They will be doing crafts and skipping the swim test today.
My dog Ned thinks splashing in a pond is so fun.

That drink is tipping over!

The snack looked good, but Sam was still too full from his lunch to want it.
LESSON 40

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Adding es as an ending

Explain that words ending in s, x, z, ch, and sh require es rather than s as an ending. The ending makes an “iz” sound and has an extra syllable beat.

- miss/misses
- kiss/kisses
- bus/buses
- fix/fixes
- tax/taxes
- rich/ riches
- rush/rushes
- mash/mashes
- fizz/fizzes

whole, often, and listen

Have the student read:

Our sled skips and skids and then crashes to a stop.

I ran to the bog and got some bugs on my socks.

The red boxes were in the shed.

She rushes to the shack to get to her pup.

40 often and listen: both words contain a t that is not pronounced, the consonants are decodable; e making the schwa “ih” sound will be decodable in Lesson 42

whole: w is not pronounced; o-consonant-e making the long “o” sound will be decodable in Lesson 51
My sis often messes up the job when she rushes. Can he fix the whole thing?

I will listen to the whole song and then tell you what I think.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Where are the axes? They were in her shed.

Meg’s job is to do the dishes.

Bob passes some ham and jam to me.

My dad often said, “Listen, we are not rich, but there are riches in us.”

The whole day was spent splitting logs.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
Our sled skips and skids and then crashes to a stop.

I ran to the bog and got some bugs on my socks.

The red boxes were in the shed.
She rushes to the shack to get to her pup.

My sis often messes up the job when she rushes.

Can he fix the whole thing?

I will listen to the whole song and then tell you what I think.
LESSON 41

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Warm Up With Sound Play:

Say, “How many sounds do you hear in the word ‘aim’? (Two: a---m) “What do you get if the ‘m’ sound is first and the ‘a’ sound is last?” (May)

“How many sounds do you hear in the word ‘lame’? (Three: l---a---m) What do you get if the ‘m’ sound is first and the ‘l’ sound is last?” (mail)

“How many sounds do you hear in the word ‘eat’? (Two: e---t) What do you get if the ‘t’ sound is first and the ‘e’ sound is last?” (tea)

New material: Compound words

Explain that a syllable is a word or part of a word with one vowel sound, for example: set, can, sun, bed, ship, and tan.

One-syllable words can be combined to make new words called compound words. Read and write the following words with your student, “finding” the two words in each compound word.

Words to read and write:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>drumstick</th>
<th>catnip</th>
<th>sunset</th>
<th>uphill</th>

<th>cobweb</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>pigpen</td>

become, school

Have the student read:

In Meg’s backpack there were two gumdrops.

We had a backlog of jobs to do when we went fishing for two days.

We got lost on our trek to the pond and had to backtrack uphill.

The sled crashed into a big rock. The kids rubbed their necks and checked for whiplash.

The bandstand is up the hill, and the hot dog stand is on the left.

Is there milk left over to have with my ham?

Have the student write from your dictation:

Ben went uphill to the pond and fished for catfish.

“Today we have your checkup. I will pick you up from school.” Dad said.

At sunset, my cat becomes as limp as a ragdoll.

Hank had the best day at school. He met his two best pals for lunch.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
In Meg’s backpack there were two gumdrops.

We had a backlog of jobs to do when we went fishing for two days.

We got lost on our trek to the pond and had to backtrack uphill.
The sled crashed into a big rock. The kids rubbed their necks and checked for whiplash.

The bandstand is up the hill, and the hot dog stand is on the left.

Notes Before Lesson 42

Students so far have been able to trust their ears in order to read and write consonants, blends, and vowels. When we move into two-syllable words, we begin to deal with the issue of accented and unaccented syllables. Accented syllables are emphasized, and we pronounce the vowels clearly. Unaccented vowels are pronounced more softly and are swallowed. In an unaccented syllable, also known as a schwa, the vowels tend to sound like “uh” or “ih.” Sandals may sound like “sanduhls.” Cactus may sound like “cactiss.” Children may sound like “childrin” or “childruhn.”

When tutoring, you will notice that students’ misspellings rarely occur in the accented syllable (“san,” “cac,” or “chil” above). Moreover, a student’s misspelling of the schwa syllable often captures the way that syllable is actually pronounced.

Using a resource like Dictionary.com can help you when dealing with unaccented schwa syllables. Dictionary.com gives audio pronunciations of words, divides words into syllables, shows which syllable gets the accent, and respells the syllables to approximate how they sound.

Dividing words into their syllable parts helps the student divide words into manageable chunks when reading or spelling. Thus, we practice counting and dividing syllables not just for the fun of it, but also because it helps students read and spell words.

To help students divide words into syllables, ask them to repeat a word such as “frantic.” Then, ask the student how many beats the word has. If students have trouble counting beats, ask them to put their hands under their chins to feel their chins drop with vowel beats. Direct students to draw two lines on the whiteboard to represent the two beats.
Remind students that every syllable has a vowel sound, so that each line will contain a vowel. You can say, “So, if I want to divide ‘frantic’ I know that the first space is going to have an a for the ‘a’ sound, and the second space will have an i for the ‘i’ sound.” Then write this on the whiteboard:

________ a _______ i _______

“Now, I can put in the consonants.”

______ fran____ __ tic _______

In Lesson 42, there will be two consonants between the vowels, and students can divide the word right down the middle between these two consonants.

Keep in mind that qu, which makes the “kw” sound, always sticks together:

banquet: ______ ban____ __ quet____

Similarly, the digraphs sh, ch, and th make one sound and stick together:

wishful: ______ wish____ __ ful____ menthol: ______ men____ __ thol____

ranches: ______ ran____ __ ches____

In Lesson 43, the student will divide more words that have more than two consonants between the vowels. In these words, you and the student decide which consonants are blends that should stick together:

____un____ twist____

____pump____ kin____

Even when a student makes a “mistake,” writing sandul for sandal, you can praise all the things the student got right. You might say, “Good job, you got the right number of syllables and all the sounds are there. It’s just that it’s spelled with an a rather than a u even though, of course, we don’t pronounce sanDAL to rhyme with GAL.” The student may like hearing the silly way the word would sound if the unaccented vowel was pronounced “correctly” as spelled.
LESSON 42

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Two-syllable words

Explain that a word has as many syllables as it has vowel sounds.

Explain that sometimes it helps us to read or spell a word to divide it into syllables in order to sound it out or spell it.

Write the word “rabbit” on the whiteboard and ask the student to name the vowel sounds. Underline the vowels. Now draw two lines on the whiteboard:

_____________  __________

Then write:

_____ rab _____  bit_____

Explain that in words with two consonants between the vowels, we divide the consonants right down the middle.

Words to divide into syllables:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>goblin</th>
<th>cactus</th>
<th>happen</th>
<th>absent</th>
<th>until</th>
<th>plastic</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>blanket</td>

<td>suspect</td>
<td>extend</td>
<td>inquest</td>
<td>fungus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>instant</td>
<td>insists</td>
<td>traffic</td>
<td>campus</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Explain to the student that qu stays together, as do sh, th, wh, ch, and ck.

More words to divide into syllables:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>banquet</th>
<th>wishful</th>
<th>ranches</th>
<th>menthol</th>
<th>bashful</th>
<th>blacktop</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>kingship</td>
<td>stricken</td>
<td>flashbulb</td>
<td>backlog</td>
<td>bathtub</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explain to the student that sometimes a short syllable can begin with a vowel, as in “epic.” We would divide these words into syllables like this:

- ep
- ic
- den
- im
- sev
- en
- pock
- et
- splash
- es

More words to read, write, or divide into syllables:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>finish</th>
<th>vivid</th>
<th>habit</th>
<th>signal</th>
<th>second</th>
<th>thicken</th>
<th>given</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:
Have the student read:

Jack will be absent from school until he is well.

The velvet blanket was on the top shelf. Frank got it down for Mom.

I will water your plants until you come back.

What more can I do to help with your trip?

Dad was upset to see the bedbug on the bed.

Fran got a bucket of shrimp, and Dan picked up a second bucket of chicken.

42 water: w and t are decodable; a making the “ah” sound after w will be decodable in Lesson 102; er will be decodable in Lesson 75

more: m is decodable; ore will be decodable in Lesson 78

down: d and n are decodable; ow will be decodable in Lesson 81
Have the student write from your dictation:

Dad put a basket down by the picnic bench for us to put our rubbish in.

Stan wants more chicken and less shrimp today.

Meg called us over to see the cactus.

I hid the tablet in the attic.

You can often see insects on the water.

Have the student do a “triple read” of some of the sentences above.
Jack will be absent from class until he is well.
The velvet blanket was on the top shelf. Frank got it down for Mom.

I will water your plants until you come back.

What more can I do to help with your trip?

Tom and Jeff left the picnic basket down in the den.

Dad was upset to see the bedbug on the bed.

Fran got a bucket of shrimp, and Dan picked up a second bucket of chicken.
LESSON 43

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Two-syllable words with consonant blends

Explain that many two-syllable words have consonant blends. Remind students of blends they know such as str in “string” or nd in “band.” In blends, we can hear the individual sounds, but the sounds are squished together. In many two-syllable words, there are more than two consonants between the vowels. We keep the blends together.

Write the word “express,” and say the word. Ask the student if he sees the two consonants that belong together in a blend.
(pr) Then divide the word on two lines on the whiteboard:

______ ex ____ press_____

Read and divide the following words in the same way, choosing the blends that you will keep together:

tantrum pumpkin hundred untwist dandruff children implant backstab backflip transplant handgrip

after, before, across

43 after: aft is decodable; er will be decodable in Lesson 75 before: b and f are decodable; e making the long “e” sound will be decodable in Lesson 48; ore will be decodable in Lesson 78
Have the student read:

Just before sunset, the children go down to the public dock for swimming lessons.

Fran can swim across the pond all by herself.

In my small handbag, there are still lots of gumdrops.

Who left their sandals on the deck after our swimming lesson?

Two or three chipmunks ran off with small chunks of my muffin.

Liz did a backflip before splashing into the water.

I do not often win at tennis, but I think that I will win today.

After school Kevin will finish the shed for his cats that he is constructing.

The student can write from dictation:

After our math quiz, what will we be doing in school today?

My dad asked for the drumstick, and my sis asked for the wing.

New material:
-all, -oll, -ull

- Make the sounds with your student
- Have the student write the lowercase letters on a dry-erase board three times while saying the sounds
- Make flashcards for your sound/letter deck

Explain: Sometimes the vowels a, o, and u make a different sound when followed by ll or l.

Words that end in -all most often have the short “o” sound as in “ball,” with “shall” being an exception (making the short “a” sound as in “bag”).

Words that end in -oll sometimes have the short “o” sound as in “doll,” but sometimes have a long “o” sound as in “roll.”

Words that end in -ull sometimes have the short “u” sound as in “skull” but other times have the “oo” sound (as in “book”) in words like “pull.” (This difference in sound is small and may go unnoticed by adults and children, but the words “gull,” “skull,” and “sullen” have the short “u” sound, whereas the words “bull,” “full,” and “pull” have the “oo” sound as in “book.”)
Words to read and write:

<table>

Frank had had a big lunch and felt too full to go with his pals to the snack shop after school.

Gwen polled the class to find the best day for the picnic.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Liz talked with Gil about the missing dish of gumdrops that had been on Ms. Smith’s desk.

LESSON 48

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the whiteboards.

Say, “Can you say new but replace the ‘n’ sound with the ‘b’ sound?” (boo)

Say, “Can you count the syllables (or beats) in boomerang?” (3)

Say, “Can you count the syllables in university? (5)

Explain that when a syllable ends with a vowel, it is called an open syllable. So far, we have worked with closed syllables because the syllables have been “closed off” with a consonant. When the syllable is “open,” the vowel says its name.

Words to read and write:

so go yo-yo Jo no be he me she we hi l flu Wi-Fi Flo

cut/cute us/use tub/tube crud/crude plum/plume dun/dune mutt/mute dud/dude tun/tune

More words to read and write:

duke fluke rude

any, many, people53

Have the student read:

You can use any old tube to make a long dog shape.

A flute has the shape of a thin tube.

The rude man cut in line again. He makes many people upset because he does not adhere to the rules.

“Compute as many of these problems as you can,” Ms. Ko said to her math class.

Jan’s win at tennis was a fluke because Jess was sick.

One of these strings on my uke must be out of tune.

53 any and many: a making the short “e” sound is irregular; n is decodable; y making the long “e” sound will be decodable in Lesson 88; m in “many” is decodable people: p is decodable; eo making the long “e” sound is irregular; ple making the “pul” sound will be decodable in Lesson 86
Max takes pride in himself as a kid who adheres to class rules.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Ben knew that it was the cute cat who had made off with the string.

Only Liz spoke, while her pals were mute.

Frank will use many things that most people toss out.

In old, old times, people had only drums and lutes to sing with.

Choose any of the stories in Group 2 (Silent-E Stories) or Group 1 (Short-Syllable Stories) for a “triple read.”

Notes Before Lesson 54

In the previous lessons, we learned how to divide words into syllables by sounding out. Another way that readers make long words easy to sound out and spell is by looking for suffixes and prefixes—these are “chunks” that have meanings and help us to understand the meanings of longer words.

Already, you have practiced adding endings such as s, apostrophe s, ed, ing to words. These endings are called “inflectional morphemes.” They do not create whole new words but rather add something to the meaning of the word to which they are attached. For instance, in using the word “help,” we would say, “Fran helps, Sid helped, and the class is helping.” In the dictionary, “helps,” “helped,” and “helping” are included in the entry for the verb “help”—they do not get their own entries.

Starting in Lesson 44 (and then in other lessons where we are working with prefixes and suffixes), students will be looking at morphemes (prefixes and suffixes) that change the meaning of words: for example, the root word “help” has a changed meaning when we add morphemes, as in helplessness, and unhelpful. There is a big difference between “careful” and “careless”!

Learning how to use and spell common prefixes and suffixes makes reading and writing easier. Just as a student who can divide words into syllable beats will be able to read and write them more easily, a student who can spot prefixes and suffixes will find words easier to read, write, and understand because the student is breaking down the word into manageable chunks.

When working on a lesson that is about prefixes and suffixes, you and the student take a break from learning new spelling patterns that make syllable sounds, because the prefixes and suffixes are featured only after those spellings already have been taught.
Thus, these lessons are a chance for students to spread their wings and read and write longer words with the spelling patterns they know and to think about meaning and vocabulary.

Some students might find it fun to see how common these prefixes and suffixes are by highlighting them in a random page from a newspaper. Moreover, this is a time to discuss words that you and your student find interesting by looking up definitions and talking about them.
LESSON 54

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material:

Common prefixes and suffixes

Explain: Another way to look at words is by breaking them into meaningful chunks. All words have a “root” part of the word and many words have prefixes that come before the root or suffixes that come after the root. Knowing the meaning of prefixes as suffixes helps us understand the meaning of the word. For example, if you know that “dis” means “not” or “opposite,” and then you see the word “distrust,” you know that “distrust” means not trusting.

Oral discussion of common prefixes and suffixes

Discuss the meanings of the following prefixes and ask your student to brainstorm words that could start with the prefix. In this oral brainstorming, all words and ideas are fair game—we do not need to limit ourselves to what we can read or spell. Think of ways that you can suggest words with clues or pantomime.

Prefixes to discuss and brainstorm:

un (meaning not): unfair, unlike, unhelpful, ungraded, unskilled, unkind

mis (meaning ill or wrongly): mistake, misplaced, misspelled, misbehave dis (meaning opposite or reverse): distrust, disturb, disagree, dislike dishonest, disprove sub (meaning underneath or lower): subtract, subtitle, subway, submerge in (meaning in, on, or not): inquest, invent, invest, invoke, intake invalid, inept out (meaning better or greater): outgrow, outdo, outnumber, outplay trans (meaning go across or beyond, change): transform, transfer, transmit

Suffixes to discuss and brainstorm:

-ish (meaning something like, making an adjective out of a noun): childish, grayish, boyish, sweetish

-ness (meaning having the quality of): goodness, softness, greatness, playfulness, rudeness

-less (meaning without): helpless, tireless, friendless, selfless

-ment (meaning something resulting from an action): investment, shipment, entertainment, agreement Words to read and write with prefixes un, mis, and dis:

unzip unfit undo unfelt unsafe unkind misprint mishap mistrust mistake misspell misfit misled distrust disgust disinfect distract dislike

Words to read and write with prefixes sub, in, trans, and out:

Words to read and write with suffixes -ish, -ness, and -less:

impish ticklish selfish gladness promptness sadness goodness helpless strapless childish useless blameless nameless timeless homeless

Words to read and write with suffixes -ment and -ful:

fragment segment pavement figment shipment helpful wishful handful skillful

Two-syllable words with silent e:

pancake sunshine milkshake tadpole compute landslide confide basement umpire stockpile excuse springtime update smokestack volume

Explain: We can now use the prefixes and suffixes we already know to make longer words. Let’s review the suffixes and prefixes we have studied and write some big words on the dry-erase board.

Many things that we use in our lifetimes pollute our planet. People should strive to use less of these things.

In June, I hope to drink many milkshakes while I sit outside in the sunshine.

Mom dislikes it when people make excuses for not putting their things away.

The man felt helpless and inept. He had not intended to let the cat out and now was not skilled at getting her to come back in.

Our address was misspelled, and thus our shipment was lost in transit for nine days.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Someday we will drive to see the campsite by the lake.

Many women confide in Pam because they know she will not share their problems with anyone.

While the rest of us are huffing and puffing, Jan outlasts us all and sprints to the finish.

The children gazed at the brave women who swung on the trapeze.
In the spring we will transplant the shrub to a spot that gets more sun.

LESSON 55

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Spelling rule with -ve and -se

Explain that no English word ends in v. Thus, a silent e appears at the end of v words. Sometimes the vowel stays short (give); sometimes the vowel changes sound (move or love); and sometimes the vowel is long (brave).

Words to read and write:

move prove live give love glove have shave brave thrive drive strive strove hive stove grave shove shovel solve involve

Explain that sometimes words that end -se have long vowel sounds as we would expect from a “magic e” pattern (“close,” “rise,” “use,” and “base”). But sometimes a silent e appears at the end of words with short vowel sounds, as in “dense.” You can point out that this silent e helps us to understand that the word is not a plural (as in “dens”) but a different word that happens to be spelled with an s at the end. You will also notice that words that end in se have the first sound (s) not the second sound (z) of s.

Words to read and write:

rinse pulse sense tense dense else expense lapse intense

Introduce the new high high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:
give, love, glove, dove, move, prove, shove, live (short “i” sound)\(^{55}\)

Have the student read:

Sometimes there are live (long “i” sound) crabs in the tank for sale.

Kevin thinks that his pulse is running fast, so he checks it.

Sam lives (short “i” sound) with five cats in a snug cabin. His vet bills are often a big expense.

Beth loves tales that have to do with vampires.

The teacher solved the problem of too much chatting in class by requesting that classmates move their desks away from pals they were tempted to chat with.

\(^{55}\) In all these -ve words, the consonants are decodable; o makes the short “u” sound in “glove, dove, love,” etc. but the “oo” sound in “move” and “prove”
Have the student write from your dictation:

Mike will help Sam move his stuff to his new home.

Zack gave his dogs some chips but would not give any to me! What a rude thing.

The last quiz proved that Sal can subtract well, but he still does not love doing math.

My dad saved his old glove from when he was a boy to give to me.

Gwen gave the pan a quick rinse before putting it on the stove.

Max felt intense gladness when his cat came back inside after having been out for two whole days.

Choose any of the stories in Group 2 (Silent-E Stories) or Group 1 (Short-Syllable Stories) for a “triple read.”

LESSON 56

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Open and closed syllables

Your student has just learned that the silent e changes the vowel to its long sound where the vowel says its name. The vowel also most often says its name in “open” syllables. An “open” syllable ends with a vowel, whereas a “closed” syllable ends with one or more consonants. So far we have mostly been working with “closed” syllables.

Compare closed and open syllables:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>bet</th>
<th>be</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>wet</td>
<td>we</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>met</td>
<td>me</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

<tr>

<tr>

<td>hi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pup</td>
<td>pu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stud</td>
<td>stu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>rat</td>
<td>ra</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When a word has only one consonant between two vowels, the first syllable is most likely (about 75% likely) to end with an open vowel. When reading a word we don’t know, we should first try to break up the word making the first syllable open. See examples below:

taken: _______ta_________ _______ken_________ climax: ______cli_________ _______max__________

bacon: ______ba_________ _______con________

Steven: ______Ste_________ _______ven___________

Mavis: ______Ma_________ ______vis__________

When there are two consonants between the vowels, blends may be sticking together in such a way that the first syllable still remains open and the vowel makes its long sound. (Thus it’s not prog/ram, but pro/gram, and it’s not frag/rant, but fra/grant. Sounding out words with open syllables will be quite challenging at first but will get easier with time and practice reading and writing these words.

Read and write more words that begin with an open syllable:

</table>

In a much smaller percentage of words (about 25%) in which there is a single consonant between the vowels, the first syllable will be closed and short in sound:

seven: ______sev_______ ______en_____________ robin: ________rob_______ ____in_____________ Read and write words that begin with a closed syllable:

finish blemish panic static driven model devil chisel

Read and write words that end with an open syllable:

hippo tempo banjo bingo condo menu Wi-Fi oregano gizmo casino mosquito (i has the long “e” sound) broccoli (i has the long “e” sound) Mexico hello also solo tofu

poor, door, floor

Have the student read:

Bill likes an up-tempo tune to jog with.

The climax of the tale was when the poor student’s bike was stolen.

JoJo pretended that a lack of bacon with her pancakes was a crisis. “Is there no more bacon?” she asked with a fake sob.

The student opened the test. She was glad to find that Ms. Liz had put a bonus problem at the end.

poor, door, and floor: p, d, and fl are decodable; oor making the “or” sound is irregular Lucas likes tofu, Rachel likes chicken, and I like both chicken and tofu.

Mopping the floor was a frequent task because of the pup and her messes.

One method of preventing wild fires is to dispose of any brush that sits close to homes, sheds, or cabins.

Have the student write from your dictation:

“Pick up your pens, open your vocab quiz, and begin,” Ms. Novak said.

Music helps pass the time while Ed bakes the cupcakes.

Crickets and locusts make music that LuAnn likes.

Simon told me a secret.

In the pandemic, people were told to isolate indoors if they had been exposed to the virus.

The moment he opened the door, Gil saw the big box of frosted donuts on the teacher’s desk.

Review the three syllable types your student now knows:

Closed: The vowel is “closed off” with a consonant and makes its short sound, as in “rat.”
Open: The vowel is not “closed off” and makes its long sound as in “be.”
Silent e: The vowel makes its long sound (says its name) when it is followed by a consonant and a silent e as in “bake.”
With your help, the student can count the syllables and identify the syllable types in the following words: isolate, absolute, populist, stimulus, daffodil, coconut, pretending, relocate.

i so late  (open, open, silent e) ab so lute  (closed, open, silent e) pop u list  (closed, open, closed) stim u lus  (closed, open, closed) daff o dil  (closed, open, closed) co co nut  (open, open, closed) pre tend ing (open, closed, closed) re lo cate  (open, open, silent e) de fined   (open, silent e) sev en     (closed, closed)
e lev en   (open, closed, closed)

Use the whiteboard to show how to write a multisyllable word from dictation. First, the student will say the word and count the syllables. For example, the word “un/pro/grammed” has three beats or syllables.

The student will draw three lines on the whiteboard, one for each beat:

_________________  ___________________  ___________________

Then, the student will write in each syllable, knowing that each space has a vowel (or a vowel with silent e):

_________un__________ _____pro_______ _____grammmed_____

Notes Before Lesson 57

This lesson is for you, the tutor, not for the student! Here’s why:
As you move forward into multisyllable words, you will need to be more aware of the schwa and how accented and unaccented syllables are pronounced. In unaccented syllables, the vowels will not be pronounced as expected. These “schwa syllables” often make a soft “uh” or “ih” sound. Before (or during) tutoring, I often want to look up words when I am not sure how the word is pronounced, how many syllables there are, and which syllable gets the accent. Dictionary.com makes this easy to do. It provides an audio recording pronouncing the word and it transcribes the word to indicate how the syllables are pronounced.

Here are some examples from Dictionary.com. The accented syllables appear in bold:

banana  \textit{buh-nan-uh} resentment \textit{ri-zent-muhnt} patio \textit{pat-ee-oh}
enrichment \textit{en-rich-muhnt} violin \textit{vahy-uh-lin} radio \textit{rey-dee-oh}
Ohio \textit{oh-hahy-oh}

Accented syllables can be sounded out easily. The nan in banana rhymes with can. The lin in violin rhymes with pin. The zent in resentment rhymes with bent. The hahy in Ohio rhymes with I. As in the early lessons, students can spell these syllables by “using their ears.”

Unaccented syllables are different. They are swallowed when we speak, and they are often not spelled the way we would expect by listening to the word; instead they most often make an “uh” or “ih” sound.
The letter i is particularly weird. In unaccented syllables, it sometimes has the short “i” sound, the “uh” sound, or even the long “e” sound as in “radio” and “patio.” Right now, we are excluding words where i makes a long “e” sound, but they will be taught later in Lesson 95.

When working on spelling long words, you can recognize the sophisticated choices students are having to make. You can sympathize with them about the fact that in English, spelling errors are inevitable because in English there are different spellings for the same sounds and because we “swallow” many sounds in words. A student who has misspelled “experiment” may like to hear something like, “Yeah, I hear it like ‘mint’ too! But, in this case, it is spelled ‘ment’ like all those other words we have seen with ‘ment.’” The message to the student is: I’m not frightened by these weird and annoying unaccented syllables, and you don’t need to be either.

I like to remember, too, that my goal is not coaching the student to become a champion speller (though good spelling is great). My main goal is making reading more effortless. All the reading, spelling, and writing from dictation we are doing together is helping to achieve this goal.
LESSON 57

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: open syllables that make a schwa sound

Explain that a as an unaccented first or final open syllable makes the schwa “uh” sound. (Thus, in words like “April” or “acorn” the a is the accented syllable and the a says its name, but in many words the a is not accented and says “uh.”)

Words to read and write:

<table>

<td>umbrella</td>

</tbody>
</table>

Explain that unaccented open syllables in the middle of words make the schwa “ih” or “uh” sound. Below, accented syllables appears in all caps and schwas appear in blue:

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:
Dr. Rona was awakened by a call. It was her week to be on call at the clinic.

Amanda loves to drink soda, and Coke is the soda she drinks most. Did you know that Coca-Cola is based in Atlanta?

Linda is in the band this year. She is glad that there is an extra tuba at school as it would be quite difficult to bring along her big tuba on her long walk to school.

Last month Franklin adopted two kittens. He adopted two so that no kitten would be left alone when he was not at home.

Sandra said to Tim, “Aside from me, who is your best pal?”

Donna made herself a tuna sandwich after school.

Gil was upset that he had not finished the test. When Ms. Ko saw that something was amiss she asked if Gil wanted extra time.

Drake is a good student, but this year he planned to do the maximum to improve his grades.

LESSON 58

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Spelling rules about when to double consonants before endings, such as ing, en, and est

The suffix ing ends many words, creating a present participle. To keep the vowel sound short, you must double the consonant between the vowel and the ing ending.

Examples:
swim/swimming  sip/sipping flip/flipping    spit/spitting bat/batting     grip/gripping pit/pitting     plan/planning

In a word that has two consonants before the ing you do not need to double the consonant.

Examples:
sift/sifting    toss/tossing sing/singing    craft/crafting drink/drinking  text/texting

In a word that has a silent e and a long vowel sound, the silent e is dropped.

Examples:
bake/baking     tube/tubing strike/striking flake/flaking hope/hoping     compete/competing fabricate/fabricating
The suffix en is used to make a past participle for many irregular verbs (verbs that do not simply use the ending ed to make the past participle).

Examples:
- bit/bitten
- hide/hidden
- drive/driven
- strike/stricken
- spoke/spoken
- take/taken

The suffix est makes an adjective a “superlative” (meaning “the most”). To keep the vowel sound short, the last consonant is doubled if the word ends in a single consonant.

Examples:
- fat/fattest
- big/biggest
- sad/saddest
- wet/wettest

In words with two or more final consonants, no doubling is needed.

Examples:
- dumb/dumbest
- slick/slickest
- soft/softest
- fast/fastest

In words with long vowels, no doubling is needed.

Examples:
- brave/bravest
- rude/rudest
- late/latest
- fine/finest
- safe/safest

Sandra’s daughter is competing in a diving contest, so Sandra is making the long drive to Cleveland to see it.

JoJo’s pal is moving to Sacramento in June of this year.

Have the student write from your dictation:

I said to my father, “I am loving this sandwich.”

That is the wettest dog! Do not let him in or we will be mopping up a big mess.

We are planning the most fun trip next month—a trip to the Grand Canyon.

LESSON 59

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Words with vowels next to each other acting independently

Explain to the student that in future lessons we will learn about vowel teams where two vowels stand next to each other and make one sound. But in this lesson we are reading and writing words where an open vowel is followed by a syllable that begins with a vowel. The syllables act on their own and have their own “beats.” [These syllables are called “split vowel teams” if you want to look up discussions of them on the internet.]

Words to read and write:

video cameo neon quiet Ohio violins poems fluid riots bionic create actual (“tu” has a “shu” sound) trial vial client eons museum idea being

Use the whiteboards to divide some of the above words into syllables. Remind the student to say the word first, count the syllable beats, and then draw the number of lines needed for the word.

_______    _______    _______

done, gone, none

Have the student read:

Drinking lots of fluids before you go on a run is supposed to be a good thing.

I think Stan has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, for a quick hello to his mom and to pick up his video equipment.

When you are done making that racket, could we have some quiet, so I can finish my math?

Lois’s dad is French and her mom is from Mexico. Lois is fluent in French, Spanish, and English!

“You all have had half of the cupcakes, and I have had none, and now you are grabbing more? This is creating a problem for me,” Alex said.

Have the student write from your dictation:

There was a note on the door that said “Gone Fishing,” so I think none of the people are there. I do not know if actual fishing is happening.

Zack loves the violin, Frank loves the flute, and Zeke likes to sing.

That man is on trial for theft. He is the client of Mr. Sanchez who is defending him.

gone: g and n are decodable; o-consonant-e making the short “o” sound (as in “pond”) is irregular
What have you done with all the plastic lions and zebras I put on that shelf?

Choose any of the stories in Group 2 (Silent-E Stories) or Group 1 (Short-Syllable Stories) for a “triple read.”

Big, Safe Words with Closed, Open, and Silent-E Syllables

New material: The vowel team

Explain that when two (or more) vowels stand together to make one sound, we call it a vowel team.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

ai (which makes the long “a” sound, as in “rain”) and appears in the middle of words

Words to read and write:

Explain the concept of “homophones,” which are words that sound the same but have different spellings and meanings. Discuss the meanings of the following words:

| mail/male | fare/fair | plain/plane | tail/tale | waist/waste |
| main/mane | pain/pane | pail/pale |

Explain that in words or syllables that end in -air, the vowel makes the “air” sound:

| chair | fair | airplane | stairs | fair | pair | repair | hair |

Note: Spelling is now more difficult than in earlier lessons. The student needs to understand that spelling “mistakes” come with the territory of more advanced phonics because now there are different spellings to represent the same sound. When students make mistakes that make sense in terms of phonics (for example, writing the word “claim” as “clame” or “snail” as “snaile”), it is helpful to point out that their spellings make perfect sense for producing they want but is not how the dictionary has decided that we spell the word. You can also tell students that English, in comparison to some other languages, is known for its variety and complexity in spelling patterns.

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

very

Have the student read:

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

word, world, work

Have the student read:

When May comes each year, we dream about long days at the beach and taking off from work.

68 word, world, work: wor, which has the “er” sound as in “fern,” will be decodable in Lesson 105; the final consonants of “word,” “world,” and “work” are decodable.

“Please” is a very good word to use when you are asking someone for help.

If someone says, “You are living in a dream world,” they may be asking you to wake up to something real.

Choose any of the stories in Group 3 (Open-and-Closed-Syllable Stories), Group 2 (Silent-E Stories) or Group 1 (Short-Syllable Stories) for a “triple read.”

LESSON 75

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create flashcards for the sound-letter deck:

er, ir, ur

Explain that er, ir, and ur all make one sound, the “er” sound (as in “term,” “bird,” and “burn”). This means that students will pick among spellings based on memory rather than sound. When students make spelling mistakes such as “burd” for “bird,” remind them that misspellings are not uncommon when different letter combinations make the same sound.

Words to read and write:

```
term       bird       burn

LESSON 76

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Using er as a suffix

Explain that er often occurs in words that describe an occupation (as in “banker”) and at the end of adjectives to describe intensity (as in “faster”).

In a word with a short vowel and a single consonant, the consonant is doubled before adding er to keep the vowel sound short:

batter runner flatter matter hatter bitter fitter thinner dinner litter hitter

In other cases, er is simply added to the word:

twirler sister camper maker hiker boater teacher bluster blister subscriber thicker

person, son

Have the student read:

Note: At this point, we are excluding words like “war” and “warm,” which will come later because the vowel makes a different sound.

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

once, pretty

Have the student read:

Jason loves card games and will play with pretty much anyone who does not cheat.

Once you know that a person is a card shark, never play with that person for cash!

Oscar, the clerk at the car park, told us that rain was expected later tonight, so we took our umbrellas.

| form | torn | corn | worn | born | storm | fork | cork | pork | fort | scorn | short | sort | sort | worn | core | score | more | shore | before | acorns | store |

Note: We are excluding works like “worm” and “worth” because the vowel makes the “er” sound rather than the “or” sound. Also, point out that most words that do not have a consonant after the “or” have a silent e, like “core.”

beautiful

The phrase “any port in a storm” refers to the time when sailors would be willing to dock at any safe spot in order to get to shore and survive.

Old people say “any port in a storm” to express the idea of needing to find a safe plan or spot even if the spot or plan is not perfect.

Our music teacher told us not to laugh into our recorders when we make a mistake.

The waitress explained that a “short stack” is three big pancakes. An order of six pancakes costs three dollars more.
The diver did a beautiful dive and got an almost perfect score.

Jan looked through the store hoping to find a dress for the prom.

To her delight, she saw a beautiful blue dress, and it was a perfect fit.

Franco sorted through all his junk and made his basement beautiful.

I put on new sneakers to go out with friends, but I like old sneakers for puttering in the house.

New material: Common r-controlled prefixes and suffixes

When or is a suffix at the end of a word, it is pronounced “er” as in “doctor.” The suffix or is added to a word to mean person who does something, such as “actor.” It can also be found in words that do not refer to people, such as “factor.”

Words to read and write:

Similarly, when ar is the last unaccented syllable of a word, it is also pronounced “er,” such as in “burglar” or “dollar.” It often ends a word that is an adjective, such as “similar.”

The car dealer said, “We have lots of fantastic preowned trucks in stock.”

The teacher said my essay was not long enough and that I needed to cover the subject in more detail. She also said that I needed to document the facts and quotes I included.

The light reflects off the windows in front of our house.

The mean girl pretended she didn’t see the person standing right in front of her. I think she does not empathize with others as a rule.

LESSON 86

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Consonant-le syllables

Explain that the sixth and final syllable type is consonant-le. Unlike the other syllable types, consonant-le cannot stand on its own and always comes after another syllable.

Review the first five syllable types with your student:

- closed: (short vowels closed with one or more consonants) cat
- open: (long vowel not closed with a consonant) be and music
- silent e: (a silent e follows a vowel and consonant) bake
- vowel team: (two or more vowels together make one sound) boat
- r-controlled (an r follows a vowel and changes the vowel sound to “er,” “or,” “ar”) barn

Make the sounds with your student and have your students write the lowercase letters of these sounds on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create flashcards for the sound-letter deck:

- ble (which makes the sound “bul” as in dribble)
- fle (which makes the sound “ful” as in snifflle)
- tle (which makes the sound “tul” as in beetle)
- dle (which makes the sound “dul” as in needle)
- gle (which makes the sound “gul” as in bugle)
- kle (which makes the sound “kul” as in sparkle)
- ple (which makes the sound “pul” as in purple)
- zle (which makes the sound “zul” as in drizzle)
Explain that to keep the vowel sound short, there must be two consonants before the “le.” If there is only one consonant before the “-le,” the preceding consonant is doubled (as in “battle” and “dribble”). When the vowel is long, as in “table,” there is only one consonant before the “le.”

LESSON 88

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letter of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

y (which makes the long “e” sound at the end of words, as in “baby”)

Explain that to keep a vowel sound short, there must be two (or more) consonants before the y, as in “mommy,” so in words with only one consonant before the y, the consonant is doubled to keep the vowel short.

Short vowel words with y to read and write:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>funny</th>
<th>stinky</th>
<th>crabby</th>
<th>squishy</th>
<th>sticky</th>
<th>tummy</th>
<th>teddy</th>
<th>penny</th>
</tr>

<tbody>

<td>dummy</td>
<td>daddy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>tricky</td>
<td>runny</td>
<td>muddy</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In long vowel words with y, there is only one consonant before the y. Explain that in silent e words, the silent e is dropped when a y is added.

Long vowel words with y to read and write:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>grime/grimy</th>
<th>whine/whiny</th>
<th>haze/hazy</th>
<th>shine/shiny</th>

<th>phony</th>
<th>flighty</th>
<th>tidy</th>

gym

Have the student read:

Betsy and Dean’s dog Rosy is a real trickster.

Rosy steals anything she can find in the trash, but she is easy to love anyway.

In the tale, a greedy old king entertained all the nobles of the land with an extravagant feast. The king’s phony pals put on fake smiles and pretended the night was full of fun.

Justin keeps track of how many times he goes to the gym with an app on his phone.

Have the student write from your dictation:

My furry kitten, Zuzu, is happy to cuddle even when she is sleepy.

The baby wants to snuggle with his teddy and take a nap.

LESSON 93

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

y (which makes the short “i” sound, as in “gym”)

Explain that y makes the short “i” sound and appears in the middle of words, and that this use of y is not common. There are a huge number of words like “baby,” “puppy,” and “crazy,” and many words like “try” and “dry,” but few words like “gym” and “hymn.”

Words to read and write:

| mystery | Phyllis | system | symbol | (“bol” sounds like “bull”) | synthetic | synthesize | synthesizer | typical | (“cal” sounds like “cull”) | physical | physics |

nature, future, picture (all pronounced with “cher”)93

Have the student read:

Meg likes to sing hymns in church, but she sings softly when she does not know the tune.

93 nature, future, and picture: na, fu, and pic, are decodable; ture making the “cher” sound is irregular in these lessons, though other words such as “capture,” “puncture,” and “creature” also have this pattern
A synthetic fabric is a fabric that is man-made and not found in nature.

In the future, we need to have a better system for dividing our household chores.

Have the student write from your dictation:

In science class this year, we will study the solar system.

“Human nature is complex,” my mother often will say.

Patrick often thinks about his plans for the future.

Melissa loves myths and fairy tales.

Note: At this point your student has mastered so many sounds of y, and this is something to celebrate! Your student knows:

y as a consonant in “yell”
y as part of a vowel team as in “pay”
y as a vowel in “pony”
y as a vowel in “spy”
y as a vowel in “gym”

Ask your student to find and describe the different sounds of y in the sentences below:

Ms. Maybelle’s happy spot is the library, and Ms. Phyllis’s happy spot is Mr. Yang’s cozy bakery. Ms. Maybelle is seventy-five and Ms. Phyllis is ninety. Both women have good systems for staying spry.

Choose any of the stories in Group 8 (“Y” as a Vowel Stories), Group 7 (Consonant-le Stories), Group 6 (Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories), or Group 5 (R-Controlled Stories) for a “triple read.”

LESSON 94

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Spelling rules for adding endings to words that end in y

When adding an s or ed to a verb ending in y, the y is changed to ie:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Verb</th>
<th>Original</th>
<th>New Form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>carry</td>
<td>carries</td>
<td>carried</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>marry</td>
<td>marries</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>dry</td>
<td>dries</td>
<td>dried</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>try</td>
<td>tries</td>
<td>tried</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>spy</td>
<td>spies</td>
<td>spied</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When adding ing the y stays:

- carrying
- marrying
- crying
- drying
- trying
- spying

When adding er, est, or ly to adjectives and adverbs the y is changed to an i:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Adjective</th>
<th>Original</th>
<th>New Form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>cozy</td>
<td>cozier</td>
<td>coziest</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>funny</td>
<td>funnier</td>
<td>funniest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lazy</td>
<td>lazier</td>
<td>laziest</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When y is part of a vowel team, the y stays:

- play
- plays
- played
- player

There are some exceptions to these common spelling patterns, such as:

- pay/paid
- shy/shyly
- dry/dryly
- sly/slyly

draw, drew

Have the student read:

Cathy exclaimed, “Gosh, Meg, you drew the prettiest picture in just a few minutes. Is drawing one of your favorite hobbies?”

My cat, Mr. Franklin, may be the laziest cat in the world. Then, again, Mr. Franklin will turn eleven on Wednesday.

The little boy was crying. He had had a wonderful time at the party, but now he was just overtired.

The plumber drew on his many years of working with old pipes to diagnose what was going wrong with the kitchen drain.

draw and drew: dr is decodable; aw will be decodable in Lesson 102; ew will be decodable in Lesson 110
Have the student write from your dictation:

When we got to the garden path, we saw the fluffiest little pet. We asked its owner if it was a dog or a cat because we couldn’t tell.

Gwen is a terrific poker player. No one can ever be sure when she is bluffing or when she has a fantastic hand.

LESSON 95

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: i making the long “e” sound in the middle of words as in “medium”

Explain to the student: “We have discussed how schwa vowels are pronounced, with an ‘uh’ sound or ‘ih’ sound. But guess what is even crazier? In the middle of words, i often makes the long ‘e’ sound. Why should ‘video’ be spelled with an e, and ‘radio’ be spelled with an i? If there is an answer, I don’t know it! But there are many words where i makes the long ‘e’ sound.”

95 aunt: au making the short “a” or “ah” sound is irregular (some speakers pronounce “aunt” like “ant” and others pronounce “aunt” like “ahnt”); the other letters are decodable cousin: c is decodable; ou making the “uh” sound is irregular; sin is decodable

Have the student read:

Lydia looked radiant with happiness on her wedding day.

The bride was my cousin. I was so proud when she and my aunt asked me to play the piano at their important event.

The rude man was boasting and grandstanding. He did not seem intimidating, just idiotic.

My cousin Frank is a librarian. Stan asked me if Frank liked books, and I said, “Well, sure, he does! Frank loves books, which is why he became Indiana’s finest librarian!”

The wedding was outside on a patio, but there was a tent for cover in case it rained.

Have the student write from your dictation:

My cousin Sal was in the stickiest mess. He had agreed to take his buddies to the casino but had also volunteered to help my aunt paint her dining room this weekend. He would have to explain his thinking to someone.

Adrian reserved a taxi for the big event.

His aunt has a job in media. She covers sports for the evening news.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

c (which makes the “s” sound, as in “ice”)

Explain that c makes what is called the “soft c” sound when it is followed by the vowels e, i, or y. Explain that in some words, like “scent,” there is an extra s before the c. Sometimes that extra s distinguishes words that sound the same but are spelled differently (as in scene/seen or cent/scent).

Have the student read:

New York City is an exciting place to visit.

\(^{96}\) America: the er is pronounced “air” and will be decodable in Lesson 115; all other letters are decodable. Americans: same as above for “Ameri”; cans is an unaccented shwa syllable that sounds like “kinz”
The scientist was in disgrace after it was reported that his evidence was faked.

The customer decided that the price for a slice of the fancy cheesecake was too high.

Cindy hates setting mousetraps to kill mice. Every time she has to check them, she braces herself for a nasty shock.

Felicity asked Sam to lend her a pencil even though she had one in her bag. Now, I wonder why she did this? Maybe she wanted a reason to talk with Sam.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Getting carpets cleaned can make a house smell nice.

In the center of the table was a big platter of dice for some new game.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day occurs in January in America, and it celebrates the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, a great American civil rights leader.

Frank wanted to know more about careers in cyber security.

More sentences for practice:

Tim’s only part in the song is banging the cymbals at the end.

Grace had to remind Frank twice to return her mystery novel.

Let’s make a fire in the fireplace and roast marshmallows.

New material: more words with the soft c and ice as a suffix

Explain that some words have a hard c (which makes the “k” sound) followed by a soft c.

Words to read and write:

success vaccine (ine pronounced “een”) access succeed accident accent accessory accept

Explain that ice is a common ending that means “state of.” In a one-syllable word like “mice,” the vowel is long, but in the majority of multisyllable words, ice is pronounced “iss.”

Words to read and write in which the ice ending has the short “i” sound:

practice service justice office notice cowardice prejudice malice solstice lattice hospice apprentice artifice accomplice

Words to read and write in which the ice ending has the long “i” sound:

Introduce the new high-frequency words you have written onto flashcards. Have the student write the high-frequency words three times while pronouncing the words:

Have the student read:

The dancer knew that it was her many hours of practice that led to her success.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. worked for economic justice, and so it makes sense that MLK Day is a day that people celebrate in our country by doing public service.

The policeman came to the scene of the car accident.

Vaccines are important for preventing illnesses.

97 clothes: “clothes” is pronounced as a one-syllable word with a long “o” vowel sound; “thes” is pronounced “thz”; there are many videos on the internet about the pronunciation of “clothes” because it is well-known as a tricky word to pronounce country: ou is pronounced “uh” which is irregular; other letters are decodable

A person who is an accessory to a crime is someone who helped another person commit a crime.

Ben’s mother put the whole family on notice that everyone would be putting their own clothes and shoes away from now on.

Many nouns are formed with an ance or ence ending. See how the adjectives become nouns when they have an ance or ence ending:

She is an elegant lady. She exudes elegance.
He is ignorant of history. Ignorance of history is a problem.
Mars is a distant planet. What is the distance we need to travel?
She has a confident smile. He lacks confidence.
He has an absent look. He has too many absences.

An ance or ence ending is also added to verbs to make nouns:

She tolerates his music. Tolerance is important in getting along with others.
He disturbed our sleep. She created a disturbance in class.
He influenced his peers. He is a good influence.

LESSON 98

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

\[ g \] (which makes the “j” sound, as in “age”)

Explain that so far \( g \) has made the hard “g” sound as in “gap.” But when a \( g \) is followed by an \( i \), \( e \), or \( y \), it makes the “j” sound as in “ginger” and “huge.”

Words to read and write with the soft \( g \):

\begin{center}
ginger huge wage garage (the \( ge \) sounds like \( zh \)) strange change urgent gym gem gentle danger germ geology gender geography agitated emergency register college
\end{center}

Point out the common exceptions “girl,” “get,” “gill” which have the hard “g” sound.

\begin{center}
b\text{u}sy, b\text{u}s\text{i}ness\textsuperscript{98}
\end{center}

Have the student read:

\textsuperscript{98} \textit{busy}: \( b \) is decodable; \( u \) making the “ih” sound is irregular; \( s \) making the “z” sound is decodable; \( y \) making the long “e” sound is decodable

\textit{business}: pronounced as a two-syllable word (with “i” not pronounced); “bus” is pronounced “biz” as above
The man said that he had urgent business downtown.

Cindy’s weekend was busy enough given her goal of cleaning the whole garage.

The bride exchanged the costly gem for a more modest ring.

My sister started taking gymnastics at five, meaning when my sister was five not when it was five o’clock.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Even when Nancy is busy, she makes time to go to the gym.

Roger hates garlic, so let’s prepare a dish with ginger.

The new business was thriving because customers noticed the expert service it delivered.

My dog, Ginger, makes a gentle woof when she needs to go outside.

Choose any of the stories in Group 8 (“Y” as a Vowel Stories), Group 7 (Consonant-le Stories), Group 6 (Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories), or Group 5 (R-Controlled Stories) for a “triple read.”

LESSON 99

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sound with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of this sound on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

gu (as in “guitar”)

Explain that in words with gu the u is silent. (In “language” and “distinguish” the gu makes a “gw” sound, but we are excluding these words, except as high frequency words.) In words where the gu is followed by an e or i, the g makes the hard “g” sound not the soft “j.” Explain to the student that the u is saying “undo” that soft g spelling rule.

Words to read and write:

| guide | guinea pig | guarantee | guard | guilty | guild | guitar |

language

Have the student read:

Mary wanted to be a fantastic guitarist.

\[99 \text{language: lang is decodable; uage making the “gwij” sound is irregular}\]
Even a trained guide dog may bother a pet guinea pig. They may be trained, but they are still dogs, with dog instincts.

The guy who sold me his old laptop gave me a one-year guarantee.

When I hear people talking in another language, I love to guess what language they are speaking.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Denzel is a nice guy who is in my language class.

I feel guilty when I put off practicing my guitar.

Can you guess how old that puppy is?

Choose any of the stories in Group 9 (Soft “c” and “g” Stories), Group 8 (“Y” as a Vowel Stories), Group 7 (Consonant-le Stories), or Group 6 (Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories) for a “triple read.”

LESSON 100

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Spelling rule for words that end in \textit{ge} and \textit{dge}

Explain to the student that in short-syllable words, \textit{dge} is used rather than just \textit{ge}. The \textit{d} is silent and acts as a second consonant to keep the vowel short.

\begin{itemize}
\item \textit{Words with dge keeping the vowel short to read and write:}
\begin{itemize}
\item edge
\item sledgehammer
\item ledge
\item bridge
\item fridge
\item lodge
\item hedge
\item cringe
\item lunge
\item fringe
\item grudge
\item hinges
\end{itemize}
\end{itemize}

Point out the exceptions “strange,” “change,” and “danger,” which have two consonants before the \textit{ge}, but also have the long “a” sound.

\begin{itemize}
\item \textit{In words where the vowel is long or r-controlled, the ending is just \textit{ge}:}
\begin{itemize}
\item rage
\item page
\item huge \item cage
\item stage
\item charge
\item large
\item splurge
\end{itemize}

\textit{young}: \textit{y} is decodable; \textit{ou} making the “u” sound is irregular; \textit{ng} is decodable.
Have the student read:

The young kids plunge into the pool, while the old people tend to wade in slowly.

Chess is a game where the best player almost never loses.

The guy told us that we would know we were getting close to the lake when the trail came to a wooden bridge crossing a stream.

The prom committee made a budget for food, drinks, flowers, and balloons.

Have the student write from your dictation:

It was strange to open the fridge and see only three things there.

Win or lose, Gran and Gramps have fun playing bridge with their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have run the lodge by the lake since they were young.

Mr. Woods is strong enough to lift himself on the high ledge.

LESSON 101

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

New material: Spelling rule for words that end in ch and tch

Explain that spelling with ch and tch works similarly to spelling with ge and dge. After a long vowel sound (like “reach” or “beach”), you use ch. In words where the vowel stays short (like “patch”) and there is only one consonant, you use tch as the ending.

Words to read and write:

roach batch latch stitch each beach stretcher brunch reach teach bunch flinch pinch match catch clutch switch snatch sketch

toward, watch

Have the student read:

Coach Sanchez knew the team had to work on its pitching if it were to make progress toward having a winning season.

101 toward: “toward” is irregular in its spelling; most pronounce toward as a one syllable word “tord”; others pronounce it in two syllables with an unaccented schwa syllable “tuh” and then “ord.” As in “clothes,” there are many videos on the internet demonstrating the pronunciation of this word watch: w is decodable; a making the “ah” sound after w will be decodable in Lesson 104; t is silent (and the spelling of tch will be practiced in Lesson 101); ch is decodable

On Mondays, Mrs. Strange plays bridge, and she always makes a batch of her tasty fudge for the group to nibble on while they play, even if it means that some of her cards get smudged.

The secret agent went to the fancy hotel to watch the businessman and senator have their meeting.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Lucy made a fantastic batch of cupcakes for the bake sale on Tuesday.

Sally switched from wheat flour to rice flour so that her cake would be gluten free.

The man was carried out on a stretcher.

In a pinch, Janet could rely on her mother to watch the kids.

aw (which makes the “ah” sound, as in “draw”)

Words to read and write:

| straw | paw | lawnmower | draw | crawl | brawl | jaw | flaw | raw | flawless | brawny | drawstring | withdraw | gawk |

million, billion, trillion, zillion

Have the student read:

Luckily, there was a major flaw in the cruel outlaw’s plans.

Prawns are similar to shrimp but not exactly the same.

Stan said that he would bet a million dollars that he could beat Joe at ping pong.

102 million, billion trillion, zillion: mill, bill, trill, zill, are decodable; ion making the “yun” sound is irregular in these materials (but the pattern appears in other words like “onion”)
“A million is one thousand times one thousand, and that is a huge number,” Dad explained.

Mom said, “Anything with tomatoes, garlic, and butter sounds yummy to me.”

Have the student write from your dictation:

Let’s draw straws for who gets the first milkshake.

A billion is bigger than a million, and a trillion is bigger than a billion, and a zillion is bigger than a trillion.

I sat in the shade in a lawn chair and watched a bird build her nest.

More sentences for practice:

At nine months old, the baby crawled on a clean, soft rug.

In art class, I found that drawing a chair was not so easy.

In the minutes before dawn, owls hoot and birds chirp.

My father and mother walked on the beach and looked out at the ocean.

Jack mows lawns. He is saving money to buy a car.

Choose any of the stories in Group 9 (Soft “c” and “g” Stories), Group 8 (“Y” as a Vowel Stories), Group 7 (Consonant-

At the start of the hike, you will have an awesome view of the mountain.

Most often, authors and artists have to practice their skills for years before selling their work.

Have the student write from your dictation:

When people say, “Keep this in the vault,” they mean that what they have told you must stay secret.

The car in front of me swerved and almost caused an accident.

LESSON 107

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sounds with your student:
cial and tial (pronounced “shul” as in “special” and “partial”)

New Concept: Explain that ci and ti work together as a consonant blend, making the “sh” sound. Cial and tial both are endings that mean “related to” and are found at the end of a lot of words. Notice that when a vowel precedes the ending, it will be spelled cial. When there is a consonant before the ending, it is more often spelled tial. Cian is used at the end of words that describe an occupation.

Words to read and write with cial:

| official | special | commercial | financial | beneficial | social |

Words to read and write with tial:

| essential | confidential | partial | residential | initial | potential |
