

LESSON 119

Review the material from the previous lessons using the sound-letter deck, the high-frequency word deck, and the dry-erase boards.

Make the sounds with your student and have your student write the lowercase letters of these sounds on a whiteboard three times while saying the sound. Create a flashcard for the sound-letter deck:

ei (which makes two sounds, the long “e” in “ceiling” and the long “a” in “vein”)

Words to read and write with ei making the long “e” sound, often preceded by c.

ceiling deceit receipt (silent p) perceive receive either neither weird

Words to read and write with ei the long “a” sound:

their heir reindeer veil vein

Have the student read:

“I must say, I have had enough of these weird spellings,” the student remarked politely.

To paint the ceiling, JoJo was careful to cover the floor with newspaper in case the paint from her brush dripped.

The bride wore a beautiful, lacy veil.

The conceited boy thought his boasts were believed by everyone.

Neither of us was in the mood to clean up the kitchen after making so many batches of cookies for the bake sale. Nevertheless, we knew it had to be done.

Have the student write from your dictation:

Are there still reindeer living in the wild?

Sally either has to finish the book by tomorrow or renew it at the library.

Neither of us received the weird note that was being passed around.

The paint on the ceiling is peeling off.

Choose any of the stories in Group 9 (Soft “c” and “g” Stories), in Group 8 (“Y” as a Vowel Stories), Group 7 (Consonant-le Stories), or Group 6 (Snow, Cow, Cloud Stories) for a “triple read.”
